FROM THE MAYOR'S DESK:

Mayor Brent K. Marshall

October 2015

Grantsville City would like to make contact with residents in the event of an emergency by email notification. Please send your email address with your home address to mboulard@grantsvilleut.gov or kclark@grantsvilleut.gov. They will add it to a list we are compiling. Your email will not be used for any purpose other than emergency contact.

Grantsville City's Third Annual Halloween Parade will be held Saturday, October 31st. If you are a business owner or would just like to pass out treats, please be lined up on the north side of Cherry Street and the east side of Center Street by 4:00 p.m. Please make sure you have a sign or banner so you are recognized by the community for your participation in our event.

Friends of the Children's Justice Center invite you to attend their Black Tie and Blue Jeans, "Halloween" Fundraiser. It will be held Saturday, October 24th at 6:00 p.m. at Miller Motorsports Park Clubhouse. There will be prizes for the best costumes, dinner, casino games, and a silent auction. For more information call 435-843-3440.

October is Fire Prevention Month. We would like to remind you at this time of year to complete your winter prevention checks, the cleaning of chimney flue pipes, and the readiness of heating systems.

The Grantsville Beautification Committee received a nomination for the Hammonds at 365 S. Cooley Street for the beautiful patriotic memorial in front of their home. When you catch your neighbors doing something great to make Grantsville shine, report them at barbandbryan@gmail.com or call us at 801 694 5232.

We are now approaching the hunting season, to prevent any problems with hunting be very careful in abiding by all of the applicable rules and regulations. Grantsville ordinances allow hunting in the City limits, but prohibit the use of center fire ammunition in handguns and rifles. Hunters are not allowed to discharge a firearm from a vehicle, from, upon or across any highway, at power lines or signs, without written permission from the owner or property manager within 600 feet of a house, dwelling or any other building or any structure in which a domestic animal is kept or fed, including a barn, poultry yard, corral, feeding pen or stockyard. Hunters are prohibited from entering privately owned land that is cultivated or properly posted without the permission of the owner or the person in charge of the land. A hunter is also trespassing if they refuse to immediately leave private land if requested to do so by the owner or person in charge.

This year's Light Parade will be held on Saturday, November 28th. We are encouraging all citizens to participate and to start thinking of how you would like to decorate your vehicle, trailer, or float. We will be offering a prize for the best lighting features and design. If you have any questions please call City Hall at (435) 884-3411.

In an effort to keep our city clean and friendly, please do not place bulk garbage items at the curb until the night prior to your bulk pick up day. If your garbage day is Monday or Tuesday, then your bulk pickup day is the 2nd Monday of every month. If your garbage day is Wednesday or Thursday, it is the 4th Monday of every month. It is a Class "C" Misdemeanor to unlawfully deposit solid waste on the street without permission from Grantsville City.
