3. Little League Baseball Presentation.

Gary Bleazard spoke on behalf of the Grantsville Little League Baseball. He thanked the council for being allowed to use the City facilities. He stated the league has about 285 kids playing this year. Last week they had 300 people show up for the clean-up day. They did everything from sweeping, painting, and repairing broken benches. He reminded the Council that last spring he was asked to create a field schedule. This has already been done this year and has worked very well. Mr. Bleazard stated they have had some issues with the Grantsville High School baseball. He explained Grantsville High School is given top priority in the schedule, the rest of the schedule is done on a percentage based number. Therefore, youth softball gets 48% and youth baseball gets the remaining 42%. Mr. Bleazard stated the only problems have been with GHS baseball as they have not stuck to the schedule which they provided. He explained anything to help stick to schedule would be appreciated.

Mr. Bleazard stated the Grantsville Little League Baseball is holding an "Opening Day" celebration on April 21. He explained there will be a "Player's Parade" and would like to go from the Tennis Court parking lot to the baseball park. He invited Mayor Marshall to ride on a fire truck in the parade. Mayor Marshall stated he will plan to do so. Mr. Bleazard stated Larry Harrison will throw out the first pitch. They will also have fireworks after the last game. Mr. Bleazard extended an invitation to everyone to attend. He again thanked the City.

Mayor Marshall discussed issues the City is having with the restrooms located near the baseball fields. Mr. Bleazard stated the League will do its best to police the restrooms.

Mr. Bleazard discussed developing a 5-7 year plan where projects can be done over time to better the facilities. He and Councilman Mike Colson are setting up a committee to lay out that plan. Mr. Bleazard requested 8-10 more garbage cans at the baseball fields. He would also like some tables if they are available. Councilman Stice commented on the great job Gary Bleazard is doing with the Grantsville Little League Baseball. Mr. Bleazard thanked the people who have helped him.

Councilman Colson invited the Council and the Mayor to come and cook hot dogs at 6:30 p.m. during the Opening Day celebration.

Mr. Bleazard reminded the Council this is a community field and there are 687 kids need to use it. Mayor Marshall and the Council agreed to talk to those who need to follow the schedule.

4. Review of tentative 2012-2013 budget.

5. Mayor and Council Reports.

Mayor Marshall reported on the Utah League of Cities and Towns (ULCT) Conference he and Councilmen Stice, Critchlow and Vera attended. He stated he went to Weber State for an Arbor Meeting where the City was recognized for the 9th year as one of the cities receiving Tree City, USA status. The Mayor stated he attended the County Commission Meeting, the City held an insurance meeting for the employees and he worked with the architect to rough in a bathroom in the Library. He stated the City has been approved for Mormon Trailhead parking. Mayor Marshall spoke with Marge Rasperson regarding the pedestrian/auto accident and he is working with UDOT to have a crossing light placed at the intersection of Main Street and Hale Street. He indicated Eastside Park will be hydro seeded next week.

Councilman Stice discussed ULCT Conference. He reported on the Mosquito Abatement Meeting he attended. He indicated road repair is still an issue.

Councilman Critchlow attended the CERT meeting and explained the importance of being able to call the CERT Team members. Mayor Marshall discussed the meaning and duties of a CERT Team and its importance.
