Section 17-3-1. Definitions, Impound Fees and Penalties.

For the purposes of this Section, park or parking means the standing of a vehicle or other item of personal property, whether occupied or not, otherwise than temporarily for the purpose of and while actually engaged in loading or unloading passengers. Loading or unloading a vehicle means a vehicle that is occupied by the operator, who shall be in the active process of loading or unloading passengers and in no event shall be stopped in the same location for more than five minutes. Patron means the driver or passenger of a motor vehicle who enters a specified building for official business after parking on the regulated street. If a vehicle or other personal property is towed away, removed or impounded pursuant to this provisions of this Section, all of the fees for towing, impoundment and storage shall be paid in full before said vehicle or personal property is released to its owner. Persons who violate the provisions of this Section shall be guilty of a Class "C" Misdemeanor as designated by the laws of the State Utah. The provisions of this Section shall not apply to that portion of Main Street, which is designated as a Utah State Highway.

Section 17-3-2. Parking After Snowstorm Prohibited.

It shall be unlawful for any person to park or leave unattended on a City road, street or alley, any motor vehicle, trailer or other item of personal property during a snowstorm and the period within twenty-four hours and after freshly fallen snow has accumulated on said streets. This period of no parking is designated as the period necessary for the street department to remove the snow from the streets of the City. Once snow is removed from a particular street, parking will then be permitted in that area, if parking is otherwise allowed on that street.

Section 17-3-3. Truck Parking Regulations.

Chapter 3 Parking.

It shall be unlawful for any person to park or leave standing on any City road, street or alley a semi-truck or trailer, except for the commercial delivery or loading of cargo, and for such purposes the parking or standing shall be limited to a period not in excess of four hours. Semi-truck is defined as any vehicle or trailer combination that has at least three (3) axles and is of the type commonly used for commercial purposes and intended to be used in tandem with a tractor or motorized vehicle. The Grantsville City Police Department after making a reasonable effort to locate the driver or owner to remove the semi-truck or trailer, is empowered to effect removal and impoundment of the semi-truck or trailer that is in violation of this section and the cost of removal and impoundment shall be charged to the owner, driver or person claiming the impounded vehicle or trailer. Nothing herein shall be construed to abrogate the provisions of the Uniform Fire Code in its application to semi-trucks or trailers hauling flammable or other dangerous products and the parking of such vehicles shall be prohibited in the manner set forth therein.

17-3-4. Hale Street Parking Regulations.

It is unlawful for any person to park or allow to be parked a motor vehicle, trailer or other item of personal property along Hale Street south of Cherry Street along the west side of Hale Street within 287 feet south of Cherry Street for a period of time longer than four continuous hours. No vehicles, trailers or other items of personal property shall be parked along the East Side of Hale Street within 125 feet of Cherry Street.

17-3-5. Quirk Street Parking Regulations.

It is unlawful for any person to park or allow to be parked a motor vehicle, trailer or other item of personal property along the West side of Quirk Street within 230 feet of Main Street.

17-3-6. Cherry Street Parking Regulations.

It is unlawful for any person between the hours of 8:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m., Monday through Friday, to park or allow to be parked a motor vehicle, trailer or other item of personal property for more than sixty minutes on both sides of Cherry Street within the first 804 feet west of Quirk Street. The regulations of this paragraph shall not apply on those days when the Grantsville High School is not in session and students are not in attendance.

17-3-7. Kearl Street Parking Regulations.

It is unlawful for any person to park or allow to be parked a motor vehicle, trailer or other item of personal property along either side of Kearl Street between Main and Clark Streets.

17-3-8. Willow Street Parking Regulations.

It is unlawful for any person to park or allow to be parked a motor vehicle, trailer or other item of personal property along the west side of Willow Street, along the first 727 feet of roadway located directly south of the southwest corner of the intersections of Willow and Pear Streets in Grantsville City. It is also unlawful for any person to stop in the southbound lean or on the west edge of the foregoing described 727 feet of Willow Street for the purpose of loading or unloading passengers.

17-3-9. Apple Street Parking Regulations.

It is unlawful for any person during the hours of 8:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m., Monday through Friday to allow passengers to load or unload from a motor vehicle, or to park or allow to be parked a motor vehicle, trailer or other item of personal property, along the south side of Apple Street from Center Street to Park Street. It is also unlawful for any person between the hours of 8:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. to park or allow to be parked a motor vehicle, trailer or other item of personal property along the north side Apple Street from Center Street to Park Street, provided, however, the loading and unloading of students in this area shall be allowed. The regulations of this subsection shall only apply when the Grantsville Elementary School is in session and students are in attendance. The regulations of this subsection shall not apply to the residents (and their guests) who live on the south side of Apple Street and the City Recorder is authorized to issue parking permits to said residents for their vehicles and for their guests.

17-3-10. Pear Street Parking Regulations.

It is unlawful for any person to park or allow to be parked a motor vehicle or other item of personal property, along the north side of Pear Street between Willow and Quirk Streets, between the hours of 8:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m., Monday through Friday, during those days that the Willow Elementary School is in session with students in attendance.

17-3-11. Park Street Parking Regulations.

It is unlawful for any person during the hours of 8:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m., Monday through Friday to allow passengers to load or unload from a motor vehicle, or to park or allow to be parked a motor vehicle, trailer or other item of personal property, along the west side of Park Street from Main Street to Apple Street. It is also unlawful for any person between the hours of 8:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. to park or allow to be parked a motor vehicle, trailer or other item of personal property along the east side of Park Street within 179 feet of Main Street, except when the driver or passenger of said vehicle is a patron of the Old Grantsville City Hall (7 Park Street). It is unlawful for any person between the hours of 8:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. Monday through Friday to allow passengers to load or unload from a motor vehicle park or allow to be parked a motor vehicle, trailer or other item of personal property on the east side of Park Street starting at a point 179 feet south of Main Street and south from that point to Apple Street. The regulations of this subsection only apply when the Grantsville Elementary School is in session and students are in attendance.

17-3-12. Center Street Parking Regulations.

It is unlawful for any person during the hours of 8:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m., Monday through Friday to allow passengers to load or unload from a motor vehicle, or to park or allow to be parked a motor vehicle, trailer or other item of personal property, along the west side of Center Street from Main Street to Apple Street. It is also unlawful for any person between the hours of 8:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. to park or allow to be parked a motor vehicle, trailer or other item of personal property along the east side of Center Street starting at a point 300 feet south of Main Street and south from that point to Apple Street. The regulations of this subsection only apply when the Grantsville Elementary School is in session and students are in attendance.
