

FROM THE MAYOR'S DESK:
Mayor Brent K. Marshall
January 2014

Our 2nd Annual Christmas Santa's Light Parade was an enormous hit. We would like to thank those that participated in the parade and came to see Santa. We would also like to thank all those who participated in the Shop with a Cop program this holiday season. It was a great success.

Key Bank located in Grantsville has been closed. We are working diligently in bringing a new bank to our community. Key Bank placed a deed restriction of ten years preventing another bank opening in their building. This has caused some delay but we are still currently working to provide you with a bank here in Grantsville.

The 2014 Children's Sociable "Our Story Plays On" will be held on Thursday, March 20, 2014. Try-out forms will be distributed through the Grantsville schools and must be completed and returned by Wednesday, February 12, 2014. Applicants will be contacted for a try-out time. Try-outs will be held on Wednesday, February 19, 2014 at GHS by appointment. Acts should be 1 minute to 2 minutes 30 seconds maximum in length. Students trying out must be enrolled in a Grantsville School, live in Grantsville, or have Grantsville ties. If you have any questions, please contact Kenna Aagard at (435) 830-5820.

As the snow comes, please be of service to your neighbors who are in need of help and those who are homebound by removing the snow from their sidewalks. Know that they will be grateful. Opportunities such as this gives us a nice, warm feeling inside during this giving season.

Dog licenses are due in March. A clinic will be provided to the public at the Fire Station in March or April. An exact date has not been set yet. We will provide you with this date when it becomes available. We are working on confirming this with the vet.

USU Tooele is offering a business and entrepreneurship lecture series to the general public. The series will run most Wednesdays, starting January 22 and running through April 9. Each lecture will begin at 6:00 p.m. and feature a business leader who has played a pivotal role in building a successful large business. In January, there are two lectures scheduled: January 22 – Building a World Class Financial Services Business and January 29 - Building a Worldwide Medical Information Company. The lectures are free to the public. If you have any further questions please contact USU at (435) 882-6611.

Happy Holidays from everyone at Miller Motorsports Park! For 2014, Miller Motorsports Park is offering all Grantsville City residents a 25% discount on all race tickets! Proof of residency and pre-purchase will be required for the four major events. Call the MMP Box Office at 435-277-8504 for more information.

January – March 2014, Live Fit Tooele County along with many community partners will be sponsoring some FREE indoor physical fitness activities. For a list of the activities and locations, please see the back of this page.

We have received our yearly audit report with no findings. Our records have been kept in accordance with governmental standards and the auditors did not note any internal controls or any weaknesses of any kind.

Hans Grow will be picking up used Christmas trees for his Eagle Scout project on Saturday, January 11, 2014 between the hours of 8:00 a.m. and 3:00 p.m. free of charge. If you would like Hans to pick up your tree, contact him by calling (435) 884-6521.

As the New Year begins, it is my wish that we take time to reflect and be thankful for our many blessings. May peace be in your lives and in the lives of those you love. I hope that your new year is prosperous and good health will follow you. May God Bless you throughout the year!
