

FROM THE MAYOR'S DESK:
Mayor Brent K. Marshall
October 2016

A new historic preservation board has been approved by the Grantsville City Council. Any persons wishing to be considered for appointment to the board should submit a letter stating your interest and qualifications to Mayor Marshall on or before October 14th.

Arrangements have been made to hold a community event for Halloween at the Grantsville High School parking lot on October 31st from 5:00 p.m. – 7:00 p.m. This event will consist of a Trunk or Treat. Those wishing to provide treats should be at the parking lot early. This is a huge opportunity to get involved with the community and have fun! Let's get together with friends and neighbors, combine our candy, and decorate a trunk! Happy Halloween!

Honey Harvest Festival is at the J. Reuben Clark Historic Farm (392 West Clark Street). It will be held on October 7th from 2:00 p.m. – Dusk and on October 8th from 11:00 a.m. – Dusk. Admission is free. Events include: Fiddle-Fest, Kid's Activities, Demonstrations, Entertainment, Craft Fair, and Food. For more information, visit clarkhistoricfarm.org.

The Utah State University - Tooele recruiter will be at the Grantsville Library the first Tuesday of every month from 2:00 p.m. to 7:00 p.m. Whether you are a high school student or it's been a few years since you attended school, stop by and ask questions about: General Admissions process and requirements, programs information, what to expect and how to succeed in college, financial aid and scholarships, ways to pay for college, college life and how to balance everything, and college information in general (not only from USU).

October is Fire Prevention Month. We would like to remind you at this time of year to test your smoke detectors, clean your chimney flue pipes, and check the readiness of your heating systems for the winter.

Grantsville City has partnered with Xpress Bill Pay (www.xpressbillpay.com) to provide you with a simple way to pay your utility bill quickly and securely. Use the app or any internet device 24-7, with the option/capability to set up automatic payments. Contact the City at (435) 884-3411 for more information.

Please do not place bulk garbage items at the curb until the night prior to your bulk pick up day. In order to be sure your bulk garbage items are picked up, please email kclark@grantsvilleut.gov or mboulard@grantsvilleut.gov with your address the Friday prior to your pick up day. We will report this to Ace Disposal. If your garbage day is Monday or Tuesday, then your bulk pick up day is the second Monday of every month. If your garbage day is Wednesday or Thursday, it is the fourth Monday of every month.

Mark your calendars! The Grantsville Light Parade will be on Saturday, November 26th. If you want to participate and have questions, call City Hall at (435) 884-3411. All citizens are welcome and encouraged to participate. You can decorate your vehicle, a trailer, or a float. There will be prizes for the best lighting features and design. Come enjoy a Grantsville tradition!

The Pioneer Valley Chamber Ensemble presents "A Concert of Classical Music" on October 14th at 7:30 p.m. It will be held at The Celebration Hall, 34 N. Church St. It will be free to the public.

The Tooele County Senior Expo will be held on October 8th from 10:00 a.m. – 1:00 p.m. at the Tooele Applied Technology College, 88 S. Tooele Blvd. There will be presentations and resources for older adults and their families.

We have seen an increase in vandalism at our parks. If you witness anyone vandalizing the restrooms, playground equipment, etc., please contact the Police Department. These items are paid for with your tax dollars. Do your part to ensure they are taken care of.
